CRAIG SCHWITTER

www.burohappold.com

Craig Schwitter established BuroHappold Engineering's first US office in 1999 because of his interest in providing an integrated approach to engineering and planning across engineering disciplines. The firm has grown to a staff of over 200 in five North American offices including New York, Boston, Chicago, Los Angeles and San Francisco. Working with world-renowned organizations and architects, the firm has solved the most complex high performance engineering problems on projects in the commercial, educational, cultural, transportation and sports sectors. Recent successes include the topping off of PNC Bank Headquarters, the first naturally ventilated commercial skyscraper in the US and the opening of the third phase of the Highline. The firm is also currently providing engineering services for over 4 million sf of residential development in New York City. Craig is an Associate Professor at Columbia University's Graduate School of Architecture, Planning and Preservation. He sits on the board of the Lower Manhattan Cultural Council.
