NAT OPPENHEIMER

www.silman.com

Nat Oppenheimer is an Executive Vice President of Robert Silman Associates, a structural engineering firm with offices in New York City, Washington DC, and Boston. He has extensive experience in the areas of new construction, renovation, historic preservation, and sustainable engineering, and leads much of the firm's institutional work. Current projects include the addition to and renovation of the Harvard University Art Museums; the new 220,000-square-foot building for the Whitney Museum of American Art in New York City's Meatpacking District; and the new Police Academy located on 35 acres in Queens, NY.

Nat serves on the executive committee of the Board of Directors of The Salvadori Center, a not-for-profit organization that uses the built environment as a motivational tool to teach math and science to at-risk, inner-city students. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Architectural League of New York, currently serving as its Treasurer, and is co-author of The Design of Renovations (New York: W.W. Norton, 1997). Nat currently teaches at Princeton University's Graduate School of Architecture & Engineering and has been a visiting juror at Columbia University, Rice University, Parsons School of Design, and the University of Michigan. He is a graduate of Clarkson University (BS, Civil Engineering) and is a registered Professional Engineer in numerous states. He is a LEED Accredited Professional.
